

Key Vocabulary		Diagram / Visual	'Sticky' Knowledge - drinks acheter	The verb 'acheter' means - to buy		Les boissons - drinks j'achete	I buy		le limonade - lemonade tu achetes	You buy		le cafe - coffee il achete elle achete nous achetons	He buys She buys We buy		le jus de pomme - apple juice le jus de fruité - fruit juice le jus de tomate - tomato juice ils achètent	They buy		le lait - milk vouloir	The verb 'vouloir' means - to want or to wish. This is an irregular verb. Below are some examples of how it is used.	Important Facts There are many types of shops (magasin) in France, just like in Great Britain. Many shops in France still sell specific items, although there are still supermarkets.	l'eau - water l'eau gazeuse - sparkling water l'eau de robinet - tap water je veux	I want (il/elle veut - he/she wants)	pâtisserie - pastry shop	le champagne - champagne je voulais	I wanted	boucherie - butchers	le vin blanc - white wine je voudrais	I would like	marchand de légumes - greengrocer	le vin rouge - red wine je veux acheter	I want to buy	boulangerie - bakery	le vin rosé - rosé wine je voudrais acheter	I would like to buy	supermarché - supermarket hypermarché - superstore	le thé - tea la tisane - herbal tea je voulais acheter	I wanted to buy	épicerie - grocery store	la bière - beer aimer	The verb 'aimer' means to like.	confiserie - sweet shop	une tasse - a cup Que voulez-vous boire?	What would you like to drink?	poissonniers - fishmonger	un bouteille - a bottle un verre - a glass